

Quail Creek Fine Arts Painting Club August 2017

Member meeting Friday August 4, 9am

Be sure to bring your summer work for Show & Tell.
Coffee and tea provided. Camaraderie is free.

August Artists of the Month are Nocturnal!

Be sure to come by the Studio to see a variety of night paintings: from Steve Piepmeier's Fire Tales to Debbie O'Rourke's Sante Fe store front to a Jean Pastore student painting of Monument Valley and more.

Summer Classes are Fun!

Alla Prima Oil Painting with Debbie O'Rourke

Mondays 1:30-4:30 August 7 - August 28. $20 per week.

This fun summer class will focus on finishing a painting all in one session. Paint away in the cool art studio on those hot summer afternoons. Different techniques will be demonstrated including the transparent and opaque technique. Emphasis on smaller paintings. Teacher can provide photos or you can bring your own. If you paint in another medium but wish to come and paint and have teacher input you are welcome too. Contact Debbie at dorourke12@mac.com to register.

Palette Knife Painting for Acrylics II with Susan Branch.

August 17, 24, 31 9:30AM to 12noon QCFAPC Members $20 ($60 total), non-members $22 ($66 total)

Explore the wonderful world of palette and painting knives with acrylic paints. In addition to the use of palette knives, we will also look at how to create mood and location with color. This is a continuation of July's Palette knife class. However, if you were unable to attend the July class please contact Susan to see if this class will be suitable for you. I expect the class to fill quickly. Email sgbranch51@yahoo.com to enroll and for a list of materials. I hope to see you in August!

The Three Painters are coming!

Mark your calendars now. We are in for a rare treat:

Friday September 15 from 8a to Noon

Jim Petty, Roberts Rogers and John Schooley, well-known professional painters from the Tubac School of Fine Art will do simultaneous demonstrations of their styles of watercolor painting. Interested people can come and go as they want or stay for the whole time.

Jim will demonstrate watercolor pencils. Roberta will demonstrate loose traditional watercolor. John will demonstrate a fine ink base sketch with complete watercolor on top.
