

Quail Creek Fine Arts Painting Club

December 2018

Phil Starke painting - Pueblo Morning

Next meeting is Monday December 3 at 1 pm. Join us to hear Tucson artist Phil Starke speak on:

“Composition and Color”.

Phil has been painting professionally since his graduation from the American Academy of Art in Chicago. He has prestigious gallery representation and teaches workshops around the country. He also offers several on-line classes.

Phil’s website is www.philstarke.com

In order to have time for discussion there will be no Show and Tell.

Annual meeting report

There was a good attendance at the November meeting. Judy McCormick was introduced as the new President appointed by the Board to complete a year of Dusty Friedman's term. A big thank you was given to Dusty Friedman as President and Amy Giannakakis as treasurer for having served the club so well.

Artist of the Month

Chris Jorgenson

I enjoy painting watercolor portraits of people and animals from photos I have taken of my subjects. I am drawn to individuals who seem to exist on the fringes of society and, I'm guessing, may have an interesting life story to tell. The dog portraits are from photos I have taken of dogs I have met on hiking trails, pets of family members and friends, and, of course, my own pets.

Fall Festival –Was held November 3 and 4

Our participation in the Quail Creek Fall Festival was led by Mary St Peter and her group of volunteers. We had 18 participating artists and 21 pieces were sold. This was an excellent opportunity to tell attendees about our club and what we do.

Dates for future Club meetings

Mark your calendars.

Quick Draw

Friday December 14 -9am to noon -in the Art Studio

The object of a Quick Draw is to join others having fun in the Art Studio. Bring a project (painting, drawing, scratchboard, etc.) to work on for 2 hours. You do not need to complete the project in the 2-hour period. At the end of the 2 hours we will have a “Show and Tell” and the you will share your work with the others. Students as well as experienced artists are welcome. Plan your project a head of time, you may bring pictures or objects to work from. We have received rave reviews from the people who attended the Quick Draws in the past. RSVP if you plan on attending to jemccormick11@gmail.com
