November 2019 Newsletter

PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE

We are happy to welcome back our seasonal residents as you return to Quail Creek. We hope you enjoyed your summer; we certainly kept busy in the Art Studio and look forward to the upcoming months.

ANNUAL MEETING -November 4 Monday at 1pm is our official annual meeting. This is where we elect new Board members, review the past year and ask for suggestions from our membership. The current Board is happy to announce that Ginny Hutcheson has volunteered to serve as VP and Katie Hottel has volunteered to serve as Secretary. We will officially elect them at the meeting to serve a 2-year term beginning January 1, 2020.

We will also have Show and Tell so bring your artwork if you choose. If you don't have anything you want to share, just come and get inspiration from the others.

Other changes in leadership: Since Ginny is moving to VP, Vicki Bengelut will be taking her place as the Membership coordinator.

Volunteer: We need someone to be responsible for the monthly newsletter. I send information to be included to the editor and so will others. If you are interested in participating in the club by creating and editing the newsletter contact Judy McCormick FAPCpresident@gmail.com

Fall Festival

We will be having an art show and sale at the Quail Creek Fall Festival November 2 and 3. Please come by and bring your friends to see the beautiful work created by our members.

SHOW AND SHARE

Thursday, November 22nd, 10am - Noon

The next 'Show and Share' is scheduled for November. Come and spend a fun and interesting time with fellow Fine Art's Club members displaying our artwork and receiving feedback from one another. You may bring a completed art project, a work in progress or just yourself! The first Show and Share in October proved to be an enlightening, educational, and delightful event. Participants gave and received encouragement, compliments, and positive suggestions about their artwork. Here are some photos provided by Steve P from the event. Mark your calendar!
