

Quail Creek Fine Arts Painting Club

December 2019 Newsletter

PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE

I am so happy to announce that Ginny Hutcheson was elected VP and Katie Hottel was elected secretary at the November meeting. I know they will make wonderful additions to the Board. They begin their new terms of office on January 1 but I know they are already getting started. Sadly, when a new person is elected this means saying goodbye to the old officers. Verne Gibbs and Carole Washburn have served 3 years as our Vice Presidents and Vicki Bengault served one year as secretary. The club appreciates their time spent serving as officers and for all doing such a good job.

The Fall Festival was a success, even if we didn't sell too many paintings. It was a beautiful exhibit of the paintings done by some of our members and showcased our club to the many people who wandered through. Many thanks to the volunteers who spent their time as cashiers, hosts or helped with set up or clean up.

The calendar has DETAILS of each class, including supply lists and teacher contact info!

Brad Grant and Gary Ratts.

Every meeting we have a drawing for an $25 gift certificate that is nicely donated by the Arizona Art Supply located near the Tucson Mall. As well, they offer a discount on non-sale items to our members. Be sure to tell them you are a member of the Quail Creek Art Club to receive the discount. You may need a card to prove membership, you can get one from the monitor in the Art Studio or use you Quail Creek membership card.

At the January meeting we will start a new type of drawing. This is specifically for monitors and they will receive one chance for every time they monitor during the previous month. This drawing is for a $20 Amazon gift certificate.

This will be our last official Newsletter. The Board decided that doing a newsletter is nice, but it is a duplication of effort since the information is located elsewhere or already in e-mails. I will continue writing a letter from the President as an e-mail at the beginning of each month.

Happy Holidays to all our club members and safe journeys if you are traveling.
